

Summary and Conclusion I

- ▶ Big data is being created and streamed at unprecedented rates
- ▶ Many geospatial methods are computationally complex, particularly when applied to big, streaming data
- ▶ Need to develop fast data analytics
- ▶ Moore's law is no longer a thing and that's a problem
- ▶ Exascale systems are coming, but have limited availability, efficiency and scalability issues

